

GERARD PRESENTS NOTE TO GERMANY

Word Removes Anxiety in Washington Over Delay in Transmission

AWAKENS INTEREST

Ambassador May Report on Manner in Which Note Is Received Before Reply Is Given

MAY CONSIDER ARBITRATION

WASHINGTON, May 15.—(Word that Ambassador Gerard had read and presented to Herr Von Jagow, minister for foreign affairs of the imperial German government, the American note sent on Thursday as a consequence of the Lusitania tragedy and other occurrences in the war zone, removed all anxiety here over the delay in transmission and awakened intense interest in the nature of Germany's reply.

In view of the telegraphic and cable delays and the probable necessity for conferences between the foreign minister with the imperial chancellor, Von Bethmann-Hollweg, and doubtless Emperor William himself, it would not be considered surprising here if the response did not arrive for another eight days.

It was believed possible however, that Ambassador Gerard might report earlier on the matter in which the American note was received by the government and the semi-official press.

In the interim confidence prevails among high officials and is shared in German official quarters that there will be no submarine attacks on passenger vessels while the questions at issue are being resolved.

Might Consider Arbitration.

The indication which comes in press dispatches today indirectly from Berlin to the effect that Germany would willingly submit the claims raised by the American note to arbitration was received with much interest and it was indicated that if the submarine warfare on merchant ships was suspended while the discussion was in progress, the plan might be given serious consideration by the American government.

Arbitration also has been talked of here before today's press dispatches arrived. Some German officials had indicated that although without evidence from Berlin, they were confident from previous knowledge of the desire of the German government to remain friendly with the United States, that arbitration would be welcomed. The difficulty of constituting a court of arbitration at this time when most of the great powers whose participation might be desired are at war was pointed out by some diplomats.

Variety of Suggestions Heard.

A variety of suggestions were heard. One which was given serious thought was a proposal to refuse clearance to belligerent ships carrying munitions of war or absolute contraband if they also carried passengers. This would involve no embargo but a separation of passenger and contraband traffic.

Objection to Plan.

Objection to this, however, in the opinion of some officials, is that the plan still would provide for the humane treatment which international law prescribes for the crew of a vessel carrying contraband and making no resistance to visit and search or any attempt to run a blockade to torpedo without warning or even to give time for the crew of a vessel carrying contraband to get into small boats. It was pointed out, would leave them to the mercy of the high seas unless a big boat happened to be nearby.

STATE U. S. IS HONEYCOMBED WITH SPIES AS ANY EUROPEAN NATION

Assertion is Made at National Convention of the Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War.

Chicago, May 15.—Speakers at the National convention of the naval and military order of the Spanish-American War said today that the United States was as honeycombed with spies as any European nation. It was asserted in speeches that in the hotels, public offices and even in the military forces of the nation there were informants who kept foreign governments in touch with American affairs.

The spy question was raised in the discussion of a resolution by Major Edward Schulte of Connecticut, calling upon public men to cease "blasting the reputation of the United States as a power." He said when weak points in the country's defense were found the proper authorities should be notified instead of the administration held up to ridicule. Opponents of the resolution said the country was so filled with spies that it was of no consequence what public speakers said about the country's defense.

REPORTS ON PROBE OF CHARGES OF ANTI-AMERICAN STATEMENTS

Results of Investigation Are Handled to U. S. District Attorney Cline in Chicago.

Chicago, May 15.—Reports of investigations into charges of anti-American sentiments publicly expressed by citizens of the United States were handed to Charles F. Cline, United States district attorney, today by Thomas I. Porter, in charge of the local bureau of the secret service. Special precautions were taken to prevent publicity being given the cases, it was said, for fear that public demonstrations might follow. One business man went to Captain Porter's office today and declared he had severed business relations with a large Chicago firm because of insults to America and the administration by the head of the firm. Another man reported every time he entered a certain downtown business house he was taunted with his citizenship. Other reports were made by telephone.

The naturalization of foreigners has increased since the Lusitania crisis more than fifty percent over a like period of time previous to the ship disaster according to figures by court clerks.

DERNBURG VOLUNTARILY DECIDES TO LEAVE THE UNITED STATES

Action of German Relieves President Wilson of an Embarrassing Situation.

Washington, May 15.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former German colonial secretary and known as an official spokesman in this country for the German cause, has voluntarily decided to leave the United States in view of the critical turn in the relations between this country and Germany.

This became known early today in official quarters and was later confirmed at the German embassy. The action of Dr. Dernburg relieved the president of an embarrassing situation, for it is known that he strongly disapproved of Dr. Dernburg's utterances justifying the sinking of the Lusitania and officials consider examining the statutes of the United States to determine what legal method might be invoked to end Dr. Dernburg's activities.

It was thought best, however, first to intimate to Count Von Bernstorff the feeling of the Washington government in the matter and ask him to request Dr. Dernburg to leave. This was made unnecessary by the decision of the former German official to leave of his own initiative.

RIOT CALL FOLLOWS OPENING OF DOORS FOR RUMMAGE SALE

CHICAGO, May 15.—A riot call for the Oak Park police followed the opening of the doors of the store housing the First Methodist Episcopal church for a rummage sale today. Two hundred men and women who crowded about the building waiting for first pick broke down the door, shattered a plate glass window and swept aside those in charge. A number of women were suffering from exhaustion when the police arrived. Three policemen remained at the sale to preserve order at the request of the church women. No arrests were made. The proceeds of the sale were to be devoted to the general church fund.

British ships at American ports unless they disposed of their guns. Out of these phases of the question, there was belief in diplomatic quarters, however, that some solution of the questions involved eventually would be reached without any repetition in the meantime of such a disaster as befell the Lusitania.

MAY LAND AMERICAN MARINES AT GUAYMAS

AUTHORIZE OFFICERS OF WARSHIPS TO TAKE ACTION IF NECESSARY

State Department Advises From Hermosillo Confirm Reported Killing of Three Americans in the Yaqui Valley.

Washington, May 15.—American marines will be landed at Guaymas and sent to the aid of Americans in danger because of Yaqui Indian outbreaks, if the commanders of warships at the Mexican port believe this to be necessary. After a conference today with Secretary Bryan, Rear Admiral Benson, acting secretary of the navy, said:

"We hope the Americans will make their way to the coast and be taken aboard a cruiser but if it is necessary to send out landing parties Commander T. C. Magruder of the Raleigh is authorized to take that action."

The Raleigh and New Orleans have been ordered to Guaymas.

State department advisers from Hermosillo today confirmed the reported killing of J. L. Donovan, W. A. Jay and Jack Wilson and the wounding of Z. O. Stocker, all Americans in the recent outbreak in the Yaqui Valley.

Secretary Bryan said information from several sources showed all Americans in the valley to be in danger. The department, he said, was making every effort to protect them and get them out of the danger zone.

Still Fighting Indians.

Los Angeles, May 15.—Telegrams received today from Guaymas stated that the American colonists near Esperanza, Sonora, still were fighting the Yaqui Indians who attacked them last Wednesday and that they had sent a request to the commander of an American cruiser at Guaymas to send them a rapid fire gun.

The telegrams further confirmed information that the Mexican troops which Governor Maytorena declared he had sent to the aid of the colonists were not within twenty miles of the scene of the fighting.

BENSON H. MERRILL OBSERVES HIS EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Family Reunion at West College Avenue Residence Today Will Honor Birthday of Aged and Well Respected Jacksonville Citizen.

Benson H. Merrill was born May 16, 1835 at Youngstown, O., and he will observe his eightieth birthday anniversary today at a family reunion. Children and grandchildren of Mr. Merrill will take dinner at noon at 847 West College avenue, his residence for a number of years. Since coming to Jacksonville twenty-four years ago Mr. Merrill has represented the best in citizenship and his anniversary will be the occasion of many words of congratulation.

Mr. Merrill went as a boy to Indiana and for some years made his home near Huntington. He made several trips west while yet a young man and with his brother-in-law, William McCartney, engaged in the carpenter trade. The young men visited this city and Mr. Merrill helped erect the old Andrew Russell, Sr., residence on Mound avenue and several other historic homes of Jacksonville.

In 1860 Mr. Merrill was married to Miss Mary E. Smith at Shelbyville, Mo., and she had proved herself a most faithful helpmeet when death called her April 20, 1914, after more than three score years of wedded life. Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Merrill: Mrs. C. F. Mathew, who resides with her father, George L. Merrill of Westmington street and James S. Merrill of West College avenue. These with their families will be present at the birthday dinner today, as will the grandchildren, James R., son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Merrill; Mary Mildred Mathew and Lloyd, Clyde, Frank and Miss Irene Merrill, children of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Merrill.

Benson H. Merrill removed with his family in 1871 to the Concord vicinity and after two months there, took residence in Chapin. In 1879 he removed to a farm southeast of the village and there he lived until 1891, the year he came to Jacksonville. Until recently Mr. Merrill was engaged in the real estate business and his integrity and business ability were well known. He bears his years well today and friends far and near will extend their wish for continued health and strength.

CORRECTIONS ASKED.

An item in the Journal yesterday stated that a boy had been struck by Edward Landreth's jitney automobile, on South East street. It was not Mr. Landreth's car but another one which is in the jitney service.

Mrs. Ben McGowan stated yesterday that the published item with reference to the arrest of her husband for an assault and battery was a mistake.

Bud Harmon and Frank Murphy who were mentioned yesterday as having been placed under arrest for engaging in a fight on East State street, asked a correction, maintaining that they were arrested without error and were released without the payment of fines.

War News Summarized

The matters of paramount interest in the European war still remain the approaching decision of Italy and the answer which Germany will make to the United States in reply to the American note. Ambassador Gerard has presented the note to the German foreign minister at Berlin and while a reply is not expected for several days, it is reported in Washington that there is confidence among high officials that passenger vessels will not be subjected to submarine attack in the interim.

Premier Salandra, whose resignation with his entire cabinet several days ago caused a great outburst in Italy, has, according to the latest advices, returned to power.

It is probable therefore that the ministry which was formed with the aid of the leaders of the stronger parties, will not be long in taking a decisive stand. The cry of the people has been for war and the Salandra cabinet was opposed by Ex-Premier Goiti and others who favored peace.

In Portugal a serious rising has occurred, in which the navy sided with the aid of the leaders of the stronger parties, will not be long in taking a decisive stand. The cry of the people has been for war and the Salandra cabinet was opposed by Ex-Premier Goiti and others who favored peace.

The fighting in Belgium and France continues without let up. The French war office claims to have checked the Germans north of Ypres, to have taken several trenches near Het Sas and to have occupied part of Steenstraete, with additional progress north of Arras and to the northeast of Notre Dame De Lorette.

The German statement asserts that the allied attacks near Steenstraete has been repulsed and fixes the number of prisoners taken by the Germans in the section between St. Julien and Ypres since April 22nd, at more than 6,000 men.

In the eastern war zone the most interesting struggle is going on near Przemyel the great fortress in Galicia which the Russians captured on March 22nd after many months investment.

The tenth army corps of the Austro-Hungarian army is now in front of this fortress and all efforts are to be put forth to retrieve the defeat of its former defenders.

The advance of strong Russian forces near Shavli has been brought to a standstill according to the Berlin official statement. The Teutonic allied troops still are pursuing the Russians in the region south of the Pilica river as far as the Vistula.

TIRES AND THEIR CARE.

"Some tires run 3,000 miles, some 6,000—8,000 miles. It looks to us as if the difference in mileage is more often due to the attention tires receive, than to any other cause," says Illinois Tire & Vulcanizing Co.

"All of which bears on the new, present era of tire merchandising. It is no longer true, if it ever was true, that intelligent tire dealers give to sell as many tires as possible to a few customers, and that dealers are light in seeing tires go wrong quickly. The new idea is to sell tires to as many customers as possible, and to make these customers satisfied customers, so that they will come back to the same place regularly for their requirements."

"The Goodyear Tire & Rubber company has capitalized this idea for the benefit of tire users, in the establishment of Service Stations, similar to ours, in the large and small cities of the country."

DANIELS ADDRESSES OFFICERS OF FLEET

READS LETTER FROM DEWEY URGING A LARGER NAVY

Admiral Fletcher and Major General Wood Address Gathering of Eight Hundred at Dinner to Atlantic Fleet Officers.

New York, May 15.—The most elaborate celebration since the Atlantic fleet arrived in New York harbor last Saturday, to be reviewed next Monday by President Wilson, was given tonight when the mayor's committee gave a dinner to the officers of the fleet. Secretary of the Navy Daniels was the chief speaker. Acting Mayor McAnany was host and toast master.

Eight Hundred Present.

More than 800 persons were present at the dinner including 200 officers of the fleet.

The speakers besides the secretary of the navy were Admiral Fletcher and Major General Wood. Before beginning speech Secretary Daniels read a letter from Admiral Dewey in which he said:

"The people of New York have just cause for pride in the fleet now assembled in their harbor." Admiral Dewey wrote, "However, we need more ships, more officers and more men and should continue the wise policy of increasing the size of our navy which must remain our first and best line of defense. This defense, unless adequate, is impotent."

"With the praise of a great city ringing in our ears," said the Secretary, "let us remember that in our splendid strength lying just outside; in this hour of natural and pardonable exultation in our great navy, as the head of that navy I feel it right to utter a word of warning, 'lest we forget,' to those who may feel inclined to rest too secure on this visible and outward display of our strength, and at the same time to speak a word of promise and cheer to those who, perhaps, have looked too despondently upon the task that still lies before us in our efforts to reach as near as possible to perfection."

Will Make Navy Stronger.

"Our navy is good; it is not good enough. With your help, as long as I am secretary of the navy we will try to make it better. The navy is strong; it is not strong enough. With the help of the whole American people, with the help of congress and an administration thoroughly committed to the policy of 'taking leave to be strong upon the seas,' we will make it stronger. This review is not the end of a century's labors. We do not here exhibit our completed work. Rather we here begin a new era, supported by the chief executive and by an enlightened and progressive congress, which gave evidence of its faith in a strong navy by the passage of the best navy bill in the history of your country. We are entering upon an era of progress such as the navy has never known before, whose keynote will be onward and whose watchword will be forward—an era marked by the lifting of our navy out of politics and by the subordination of all things afloat or ashore to the efficiency of the fleet, in order that by our very strength we may be able to demand the right to live at peace with all the world."

Spectators Line Drive.

Thousands of spectators lined Riverside drive and gathered in Riverside park tonight to see the illuminated ships of the Atlantic fleet anchored in the Hudson river and witness a display of fireworks from floats in the river near where the big ships swung. Band concerts were given in the park nearby. The pyrotechnical display was one of the most notable in the city's history and marked the close of a week of entertainment for the officers and men of the fleet.

ON-SHORE WIND SWEEPS SEA WHERE THE LUSITANIA SANK

Consul Frost Reports That Many More Bodies are Expected to Come Ashore.

Washington, May 15.—An on-shore wind is sweeping the sea where the Lusitania was sunk, Consul Frost at Queenstown reported today to the state department and many more bodies are expected to come ashore.

"Weather wild, but wind at last shoreward," his message said. "Anticipate fifty or sixty more bodies, of whom some will be Americans. No sign yet of Hubbard, Vanderbilt, Stone, Klein, Forman."

Commenting that "Cunard identification is not always conclusive," Consul Frost sent eighteen additional names to the list of identified American dead he has already reported officially.

Valuables found on the American bodies are being delivered to relatives by Mr. Frost.

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION FAILS TO CONCLUDE INQUIRY

Clarence Darrow, Walter Drew and James A. Emery Will Appear Monday.

Washington, May 15.—The federal industrial commission failed to conclude today its inquiry into the relations of labor and the law, as had been expected. Three important witnesses, Clarence S. Darrow, labor attorney; Walter Drew, chief counsel for the national employers association and James A. Emery, counsel for the national association of Manufacturers, will appear on Monday and are expected to close this branch of the investigation.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr. and members of his staff who had been expected to appear on Monday for examination as to correspondence submitted to the commission since the former appearance of Mr. Rockefeller, will be heard later in the week.

Anton Johannsen, labor organizer, continued his testimony today as to conditions in the structural iron workers' strikes, and in labor struggles in California and Daniel Davenport, counsel for the American Boycott association, and Thomas S. Spelling, formerly counsel for the American Federation of Labor, also were questioned. Both Davenport and Spelling criticized the act just passed and said it would not relieve labor.

Mr. Spelling asserted that the so-called limitations in the Clayton act, apparently designed to restrict the use of injunction and contempt proceedings in labor troubles, would really operate to confer further arbitrary powers on the courts. "I would say," he concluded, "that union labor not only got a lemon but got dynamite in this act. The measure bars the way to labor freedom."

RAILROADS MUST GIVE UP LAKE STEAMSHIP LINES AFTER DEC. 1

Inter-State Commerce Commission Gives One of the Most Far-reaching Decisions in Recent Years.

Washington, May 15.—In one of the most far reaching decisions of recent years the inter-state commerce commission today decided that the railroads owning and operating steamship lines on the great lakes must give them up after December 1st.

The principal eastern trunk lines which carry the great volume of freight traffic between Atlantic seaboard and the west are affected and the decision may partially alter the trade routes over which are moved millions of tons of the west's rich stores of raw materials—principally grain and ores to the east and millions of tons of manufactured products to the west and northwest.

In effect the decision establishes a water route, independent of railway control from New York to Duluth and other western-most points on Lake Superior and to Chicago and other points on Lake Michigan, through a chain of waterways—the Hudson river, Erie canal, the Great Lakes and connecting rivers. The commission points out that the Great Lakes, for many years dominated by the railroad owned fleets will again be open to independent shipping and that the Erie canal again has the opportunity of becoming a main artery of traffic.

INTERN SEVERAL THOUSAND SUBJECTS OF ENEMY COUNTRIES

LONDON, May 15.—(10:30 p. m.)—Several thousand subjects of enemy countries of a military age were sent to internment camps today, the majority of them being men who voluntarily surrendered. At least two thousand of these came from the Soho district of London, those in the East End waiting for the police to take them. Many of them were owners of small businesses, which they have disposed of since the order for a general internment was issued by the government. Those remaining at large and for whom there is no room in the camps, have been ordered not to leave their homes between nine o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning. This action on the part of the government and the fines and imprisonment inflicted upon the men, women and boys who wrecked and looted German shops have virtually put an end to the rioting.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT IN PORTUGAL

Navy Bombards Capital Held By the Army, Which Remains Loyal

SALANDRA IN OFFICE

Greece, Bulgaria and Roumania Await Italy's Decision as to Whether She Will Join Allies

RUSS MAY LOSE PRZEMYSL

LONDON, May 16.—(2:55 a. m.)—A wireless dispatch from Lisbon received by the Fabre Agency at Madrid at 11:40 last night says the insurrection has been crushed. Captain Martins Lima has assumed command of the Republican troops. There are rumors at Madrid, the dispatch continues, that the leave of Spanish naval officers has been suspended and that he battleships Espana and Carlos Quinto have been ordered to Lisbon. I also is stated that two regiments of infantry have been sent to Badajoz, Spain, on the frontier.

PARIS, May 16.—(2:20 a. m.)—President De Aftaga of Portugal abandoned the Palace of Bailem and went to Lisbon under the escort of the Republican guard, according to the Madrid correspondent of the Havas Agency.

LONDON, May 15.—Midnight.—A Reuter dispatch from Lisbon says the revolutionary committee has issued a proclamation stating that the object of the movement is to restore a real republic. They desire a national government and therefore will hoist no party flag. They counsel the people not to indulge in reprisals but to trust the national government which "will act vigorously but generously toward the vanquished."

LONDON, May 15.—(11:15 p. m.)—With the outbreak of a revolution in Portugal, which, according to dispatches from Madrid, is supported by the navy, Spain, Switzerland, Holland and the Scandinavian countries are the only states in Europe which are not either engaged in war or have domestic troubles to occupy their attention.

Very little news has yet come through from Lisbon but it is reported that the navy has bombarded the capital held by the army which remains loyal to the president, Manuel Aftaga. It is not known whether the insurrection was started by the royalists but members of that party resident in London disclaim all knowledge of it.

Await Italy's Decision.

Greece, Bulgaria and Roumania, where there are pro-war and anti-war parties are waiting for the final decision of Italy as to whether she will join the allies—a decision which has been delayed by the resignation of Premier Salandra, who however, is reported from Rome to be back in office. The prediction is made that Salandra will form a new government with the support of the leaders of the stronger parties in the chamber.

Among the belligerents interest waivers between the battle in Galicia, Flanders and Pas De Calais and the operations in the Dardanelles, from which important news regarding the advance of the allies is daily expected.

So far as Galicia is concerned, the Austro-German rush seemed to have exhausted itself when the river San was reached and all the towns on the west bank of that river, including Jaroslau, fell into their hands. This compelled the Russians to fall back in southern Poland, so that their line now runs from Plock, on the lower Vistula southward to Przemyel, thence south and east through eastern Galicia and Bukovina to the Roumanian border. At the latter end of this line the Russians are still pursuing their offensive and have driven the Austrians back in disorder for some twenty miles, but they themselves are being forced out of the Carpathian mountains and are in danger of losing Przemyel, as the Austrians and Germans are to the north and south of that city.

Resist German Attacks.

The British appear to have resisted successfully all German attacks on Ypres, while the Belgians have continued their attacks from the sea to Dixmude and the French have made further headway north of Arras.

It would appear, from the latest French official statement issued today that this offensive in this part of Pas de Calais was not intended as the commencement of the big general movement, but was merely an operation had it been completely successful would rectify their front in which Germany formed a threatening salient.

THE CITY AND ITS DEBTS.

It is not a commonly known fact, but it is nevertheless true that the pay roll of Jacksonville for its officers and employees is of such size that it fully equals the total yearly amount received from taxation. In other words, the amount of money usually received from taxes is about $2,000 and the monthly payroll of the city runs between $4,000 and $5,000. It is apparent, therefore, how difficult is the task of any body of city officials in the endeavor to make ends meet. Practically the only source of revenue the city has aside from taxation is the water department, and while the past few years this department has produced from $1,000 to $2,000 monthly more than it expended, figured through a long period of years the department would not show itself self-sustaining.

There are constantly ordinary and extraordinary expenses which must be met, and since the salaries and wages use up all of the tax money, from what source is the city to secure funds to meet these other expenses? This condition has brought to pass that the city now has a floating indebtedness of $42,379 together with outstanding anticipation warrants of $39,281. This means, of course, that 75 per cent of the taxes payable in 1916 have already been expended and that January will see the city still with a back indebtedness of $42,379, plus any deficit which may accrue between the present time and January 1st.

Some economies will no doubt be attempted by the new city officials, but it is certain that they cannot be of such an amount that the floating debt could be reduced in any material way. There is a recognized need for new equipment in the fire department; there are additions which are necessary for both light and water departments; the lines and poles of the light department should be rebuilt to a large extent, and should any paving be done, the city must pay its share of the interest. Other improvements could be mentioned in the needed class, and where is this money to come from, with a monthly payroll consuming all of the available tax money?

Manifestly the endeavor of a private corporation facing exactly the same situation would be to increase revenues and reduce expenditures. The same line of reasoning will no doubt appeal to the present city council, but even with any increase in revenue and reduction in expenditure that the council might be able to figure out, there will still remain facing the city a large indebtedness, which it is practically impossible to wipe out even in installments with the normal resources of the city.

The mayor and commissioners have given no intimation of what their plans are, or what they really think about the situation other than to make public the statement of a few days since indicating the total amount of indebtedness and showing the particulars from which it is divided. As evidence of the reason for a monthly payroll of $4,000 to $5,000, the separate payrolls from each city department are of interest. The figures quoted here are for the month of April of the present year.

The total payroll of the fire department proper for this month is $807. This includes the salary of the chief, who receives $85 a month; the assistant chief at $70; the engineer at $70, and nine firemen at $60, with five call firemen at $8.

In the water department the superintendent receives $75; mechanical engineer $75; meter reader $75; two engineers $75 each, and three engineers $60, the pay varying with the work required; two laborers receive $48.10 each, bringing the total to $651.20.

In the street department the commissioner receives $75 a month, and the expenses and wages vary from month to month. For the month quoted the total the department spent on the highways and for street cleaning was $1,092.81, which includes the salary of the street commissioner.

In the police department, the chief of police receives $85 a month; the night captain $72 a month; four policemen $60 a month, and five policemen $62 a month, which together with the $25 salary of the police matron, makes a total of $732.

The monthly salary of the mayor is $166.66; for each commissioner, $141.66; city clerk, $75; stenographer $50; treasurer $25; city attorney $75; city attorney's stenographer $25; city health warden $25; city hall janitor, $40; making a total for the officers and employees enumerated above of $923.32.

In the light department the salary of the superintendent and chief engineer is $100; one engineer $75; two engineers $70; four firemen $60; two linemen $60, making a total of $675.

Recapitulation:
Fire department $807.09
Water department 651.20
Street department 1092.81
Police department 732.00
City officers 623.32
Light department 675.00
$4,581.33

Some of the expenditures needed in the fire department and in other departments as well would result in saving. For example, the addition of an auto driven chemical wagon and other auto driven vehicles would undoubtedly cut down the expense of maintaining the fire department, as with present prices the feed for seven or eight head of horses is a very important item. With new wiring and other equipment in the light department some saving could also be effected, and these are only a few of the things which could be mentioned in the same connection. But when all is said and done, and the figures have all been totaled, the question remains—where will Jacksonville secure enough funds to take care of its past indebtedness and continue its business in a business-like way?

THE GENERAL SCHOOL LAW

As previously noted, a bill has been introduced in the Illinois general assembly having for its purpose the abolishment of the special school charter of Jacksonville. The bill was introduced in the senate and given a second reading and also presented in the house, and some further action may be looked for either this week or next. While it is true that the proposition has been voted upon in Jacksonville several times and each time defeated, it is also true that a comparatively light vote was cast upon the question each time and the decision against the adoption of the general law did not represent the opinion of a majority of the whole people. There were a great many people who ignored the whole proposition, and this would likely be true even if the matter were put to a vote again.

It therefore seems that the simplest and most reasonable way to handle the question is by a special enactment. The special charter while it has some advantages as a whole does not provide as good a system for school management as the general law. There formerly were a great many more special charters than now exist, and it came to be recognized that if the best advances were to be made that some general plan of educational work should be followed.

It seems reasonable that the best results cannot be attained by each city handling its educational affairs in a different way, since education is a general and not a local problem. The general law, while not perfect, is therefore considered to represent the best thought of educators all over the state. It is true that the standard of work done does not depend nearly so much upon the system or law under which the schools operate as upon the efficiency of the work is greatly influenced by the general school management.

One of the principal objections to the special charter is the fact that the board of education affairs are so closely related with those of the city administration that there is the temptation at least to get politics and school affairs mixed. The greatest complaint against the special charter has been because of the election of members of the board by wards instead of at large. The custom has grown of each member feeling that he must be the controlling factor of the schools in his own ward and not feel any large responsibility for the work or condition of the schools in the other wards.

Under the general law Jacksonville would have nine members of the board and a president; three members and the president would be elected each year. This would mean that a majority of the board would hold over each year and that the board would therefore be dominated continually by men or women experienced in the school management.

The objection has been raised that it would be more expensive to have a board of nine members and a president than under the present condition, but the fact is that under the general law neither the president or members would receive any salary whatever. The theory under the general law is that men or women interested in school affairs will be ready and willing to serve as members because of their interest in the schools and because of the honor of holding such positions.

The passage of the law now before the assembly would be an advance step and place the Jacksonville schools on the same footing as the larger number of school systems of the state.

GERMANY'S EXCUSE.

Editor Journal:

In the Tribune of May 11th there is published a despatch from the German government to its embassy at Washington, expressing "its deepest sympathy at the loss of lives on board the Lusitania," throwing the responsibility for the loss upon the British government, assuming that the ship was sunk by one of Germany's submarines, and justifying the action upon the following grounds:

1st. The British government through its plan of starving the civilian population of Germany has forced Germany to resort to retaliatory measures.

2nd. British merchant vessels are being generally armed with guns and have repeatedly tried to ram submarines.

3rd. The Lusitania carried 5,400 cases of ammunition, and the rest of the cargo consisted chiefly of contraband, and "owing to its armament and cargo was liable to destruction."

Let us consider these excuses separately:

1st. England has not starved any of the civilian population of Germany, and there is no evidence that she ever will. If we can trust the assurances of various German officials, there is no danger that any of the German population will suffer for food. But even if such were the case, there is no doubt that under the rules of international law, England has a right to blockade the ports of Germany and destroy her commerce, including the prevention of the introduction of supplies of food. Such a blockade is no justification whatever for an attack by submarines upon unarmed merchant vessels and consequent loss of hundreds of lives of non-combatants.

2nd. Mr. Malone, collector of the port of New York, has certified that the Lusitania was wholly unarmed when she started on her fatal trip, which disposes of that contention. The attempt on the part of the German government to make the ability to ram a submarine the equivalent of an armament on board a merchant vessel is an absurdity. If this position were correct then there could be no such thing as an unarmed vessel; for every vessel can be assumed to be capable of ramming some other vessel of smaller size or slower speed. The idea that a vessel nearly 800 feet long, such as the Lusitania, could be so maneuvered as to ram a submarine, is an absurdity.

3rd. I have already disposed of the contention that the Lusitania was armed. If it be a fact that she carried large quantities of ammunition and other contraband of war, such fact did not render her a war vessel, nor deprive her of the protection due to merchant vessels. The rules required that she be given notice, and that her passengers and crew be removed to a place of safety before the vessel should be sunk.

If Germany can give no better excuse for the destruction of the Lusitania and the great loss of life which ensued than may be found in the above despatch from the German government, then she will stand convicted before the world as guilty of one of the most infamous crimes in the history of all warfare.

Market Conditions Improve.

Morgan county farmers and stock dealers materially interested in the recent announcement made by the secretary of agriculture which has the effect of releasing Morgan county into restricted territory. This means in brief that shippers here may now send stock to the St. Louis stock yards, where they will be yarded in a portion set apart for stock coming from restricted territory and there may be sold for immediate slaughter either in St. Louis or at other points to which they may be shipped. The St. Louis market is thus opened for shipments from this territory for the first time since the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease last fall. It has been possible for sometime to ship to the Chicago markets but only to the quarantine division, where prices in the main were not satisfactory.

SEALED VERDICT RETURNED.

The argument in the Montgomery county drainage case which has been in progress in the circuit court since last Monday was concluded just before noon Saturday. Judge Burton instructed the jury and they retired about 1:30 o'clock to consider their verdict. About 7 o'clock they returned a sealed verdict which will be opened at 1:30 Monday afternoon by the court.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR THE LATE J. W. RICHARDSON

Conducted From the Family Home on East College Avenue by Rev. G. W. Flagge.

Funeral services for John W. Richardson were held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the family residence, 613 East College avenue and were conducted by Rev. G. W. Flagge pastor of Centenary church, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

The singing of hymns during the occasion was by a quartet consisting of Miss Clara Ranson, Mrs. Chas. F. Glossop, T. H. Rapp and A. C. Metcalf. The floral tributes of sympathy and friendship were cared for by Mrs. Harry Atkins, Mrs. Harvey Atkins, Mrs. Arthur Atkins and Mrs. Guy Lynn.

Rev. G. W. Flagge took as his text 2 Timothy 2-15, "Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth." A summary of what he said follows:

"While these words were written as advice by one preacher to another about the work of a preacher, and there is no suggestion of death or the grave in it, it is nevertheless appropriate on this occasion because we are gathered together to lay away the earthly tabernacle of a workman; a man who for years earned his daily bread by the labor of his hands. It is that kind of man we think of when we use the term 'workman' and yet all of us are, or ought to be, workmen. While the earthly occupation of some of us must of necessity be of a kind not coming under that trade description, at heart we should all be workmen for Christ. God needs preachers, it is true, but not as many of them as He needs of other occupations, and the larger part of the work He wants accomplished must be done by men in other positions than that of pastors.

"Therefore the text is in a sense a workman's message to workmen. If he who has gone could address us in language we could understand, it is doubtful if he could give us better advice than these words convey. It would be a message out of a workman's eternity to workers traveling rapidly toward that goal. It is not a heaven of idleness we look forward to, because a thousand years of doing nothing would not appeal to us. It is an eternity of greater work than any we do here that we believe in and look forward to. Only there we will not grow weary in the doing, and what tired us so here will be but child's play beside the really great work we will undertake there. For we will help Jesus Christ do the great things He has planned for the eternity that opens up before all who become workers together with Him. It is great enough a task to free all the ambition we have to be workmen approved for co-operation with Him.

"And the way we are to show ourselves such workmen is to handle the 'Word of Truth' aright. In our hands God has placed the Bible, and He is marking how we use it. He is noting the interpretation we are giving it by our words and our lives, because right in our station He needs interpreters of it, and He asks only one thing of us, that we 'study to show ourselves approved' in our use of it."

Burial was made in Diamond Grove cemetery and the bearers were H. R. Atkins, Harvey D. Atkins, Arthur J. Atkins, John Buckley and William E. Lynn.

Henry.

John Henry died Saturday morning at 3 o'clock at the home of his son, Robert Henry, near Murrayville. Mr. Henry was 80 years of age and was born in Morgan county. He married Sarah Jane Edwards, December 14, 1855 and she passed away 20 years ago. He had only recently moved from Modesto to the home of his son. He was a veteran of the civil war being a member of the 101st Illinois Volunteer Infantry.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry were the parents of eleven children and the following survive: Sylvester of Macoupin county, Thomas of Murrayville, Robert, Mrs. Ida Arnold, Modesto, Mrs. Jane Arnold, Athens; Mrs. Martha Arnold, Oklahoma; John of Arkansas and Clarence of Modesto. He leaves one brother, William of Woodson, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Smith of Woodson.

The funeral will be conducted from the Youngblood Baptist church Monday morning at 11 o'clock in charge of Rev. Roy March.

Martin.

William Martin, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Martin of St. Louis, died Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, according to word received in the city by his uncle, L. P. Owen. The little boy suffered a sudden attack of appendicitis and underwent operation Thursday night. His condition was very grave and little hope for recovery was held from the first. Besides his parents, the boy is survived by a younger sister, Virginia Martin. Blessed with a pleasant disposition, he was a child of excellent promise. His loss will be mourned by many friends, to whom he had endeared himself.

Burial will be made in Jacksonville and arrangements for the funeral will be later announced. The body is expected to arrive from St. Louis over the 5:30 o'clock C. & A. train this evening.

WAR BRINGS EQUAL SUFFRAGE TO DENMARK

NEW CONSTITUTION ENDS LONG CONTROVERSY.

Goes Into Effect June 5—Conflict Brings About a Spirit of Compromise as Well as a Broader Patriotism.

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

Copenhagen, May 1.—Denmark's new constitution granting equal suffrage to men and women, which goes into effect on June 5, has ended a long and bitter controversy. For this happy result, the Danes can thank the war. Although at one time it looked as if constitutional reform would disrupt the country, the great conflict to which it is a near neighbor brought about a spirit of compromise as well as a feeling of broader patriotism. The demand for reform was too widespread for conservatives to resist, but concessions were made to ensure a gradual change.

Electors must attain their 35th year to vote for candidates to the Landsting, or upper house, and their 25th to the Folketing, or lower. Formerly elective rights in the case of the lower house were granted at the 20th year, but as a concession to the conservatives the limit will be reduced only a year at each election, which will ensure a period of sixteen years for the reduction to take place in.

It was in 1849 that Denmark passed from a despotism to a free constitution. But the reactionaries gained the upper hand during the depression that followed the disastrous war with Germany and Austria in 1866, and passed a constitution that virtually delivered all the political power into the hands of the landowners by means of certain electoral privileges regarding the Landsting, or upper house, leaving the popular body with little to say in the running of the government.

This constitution in 1866 has been marked by a half century of fighting between the two houses. The conservatives held the upper house, which did as it pleased. But as powerless in legislating as was the lower house, behind it stood the people, and since 1901 it has been composed of liberals, moderates and radicals, with almost no conservatives.

A demand from the Folketing was consequently a demand from the mass of the Danish people, and not to be ignored. The movement for constitutional reform began modestly enough, as only one amendment affecting a few voting qualifications was asked for. From this beginning, the movement grew for wider and wider changes, relating to the upper as well as the lower house. The conservatives opposed any reform. But Minister Bernstein's proposal for the abolition of electoral privileges held by the upper class and for universal suffrage for men and women was taken up vigorously by the entire democracy, including moderates, radicals and socialists, and notwithstanding the inequalities of the franchise the radicals even replaced the moderates in the cabinet. Last July it was seen that universal suffrage was ensured.

The outbreak of the European war caused domestic questions to be lost sight of for a while. But early in the present year the conservative leaders approached the radical Prime Minister, Mr. Zahle, and offered to negotiate on the basis proposed by the radicals. In April the compromise was arranged, and King Christian will affix his signature to the new and free constitution of the Danish people on the fifth of next month.

VETERAN DIPLOMAT RESIGNS.

Washington, May 15.—William Heimke, chief of the division of Latin American affairs in the State Department, will retire on Monday, after serving the government for forty-three years, eighteen in the army and in connection with it, and twenty-five years in the diplomatic service. His resignation was recently tendered to Secretary Bryan. He is 62 years old, a native of France, and a noted linguist. He served as consul, secretary of legations and embassies, and was ambassador to Guatemala and Salvador. Boaz W. Long, minister to Salvador, who formerly held the position, will succeed Mr. Heimke.

EXPECT RUSH FOR RESERVATION LAND.

Fort Yates, N. D., May 15.—A rush of landseekers is expected here on Monday, when the unallotted public lands will be thrown open for homesteading. The Indians were given the first ten days of the month for first choice, but as they frequently select the less fertile sections, in order to the near wood and water, it is expected that many desirable quarter sections will remain for the rush. The homesteaders must pay $5 an acre and then comply with the requirements regarding the establishment of residence.

DEDICATE ST. LOUIS WATER PLANT.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—Waterworks experts from all sections of America, who have been holding a convention at Cincinnati, attended the dedication today of the new filtration plant that will henceforth furnish pure, sparkling water to St. Louis. The new plant is a marvel of construction, and will supply pure water at the rate of 160,000,000 gallons a day. Mayor Kiel and other officials were the speakers, and the exercises took place at the plant, which is located at Chain of Rocks.

URGE U. S. PURCHASE OF LOWER CALIFORNIA.

Washington, May 15.—Recent developments in the international situation have revived discussion of the proposal for the purchase by the United States of Lower California from Mexico. That this tongue of land is so separated from Mexico and so geographically a part of the United States coast line on the Pacific is the reason assigned by early proponents of the purchase. The present day attraction is Magdalena Bay, which is of strategic value to the United States, and possesses one of the best harbors on the Coast. Lower California possesses vast mineral wealth in gold, silver, iron, copper, lead and other deposits. By irrigation a vast portion of its now valueless arid lands could, it is thought, be transformed into agriculture land of high value.

On the resumption of responsible government in Mexico, it is said here that it is not unlikely that proposals looking to the purchase will be made.

NORWAY MAY CENSOR CORRESPONDENCE.

AFTER WHILE

A few more years, or a few more days, and we'll all be gone from the rugged ways wherein we are logging now; a few more seasons of stress and toil, then we'll all turn in to enrich the soil, for some future farmer's plow.

A few more years and the grass will grow where you and the push are lying low, your arduous labors o'er; and those surviving will toil and strain, their bosoms full of the same old pain you knew in the days of yore. Oh, what's the use of the carking car, or the load of grief that we always bear, in such a brief life as this. A few more years and we will not know a side of beef from a wooley woe, an ache from a bridal kiss. "I fear the future," you trembling say, and nurse your fear in a dotard way, and moisten it with a tear; the future day is a day unborn, and you'll be dead on its natal morn, so live while the present's here. A few more years and you cannot tell a quart of tears from a wedding bell, a wreath from a beggar's rag; you'll take a ride to the place of tombs in a jaunty hearse with its nodding plumes, and a pair of milk-black nags. So while you stay on the old gray earth, cut up and dance with exceeding mirth have nothing to do with woe; a few more years and you cannot weep, you'll be so quiet and sound asleep, where the johnnie-jumpers grow.

CHICAGO U. ATHLETES DEFEAT PURDUE, BEAT TWO RECORDS

CHICAGO, May 15.—Two conference records were beaten and another tied by University of Chicago athletes who defeated Purdue by 78 to 39 in a dual track meet on Stagg Field today. Campbell of Chicago ran the half mile in 1:55 2/5 breaking the old record made by Henderson of Illinois last year by one-fifth of a second. Ward of Chicago set a new mark of 24 3/5 in the 220 yard hurdles, lowering by one fifth of a second the record made by Fletcher of Notre Dame in 1910. Knight of Chicago made the 100 yard dash in :09 4/5, equalling the old "Big Nine" mark credited to May of Illinois in 1907 and to Blair of Chicago in 1903.

Knight's mark of :09 4/5 was within 2-5 of a second of the world's amateur mark held by R. E. Walker, :09 2-5.

NORTHWESTERN WINS MEET.

Chicago, May 15.—Northwestern University track team won the dual meet from Indiana University at Northwestern field by 84 to 42 today. Wickes of Indiana set a new pole vault record for the field by winning with 12 feet. Shaw of Northwestern made the best previous record, eleven feet ten inches in 1912.

Captain Howard Osborne of Northwestern ran his last race for the school after three years as its track star. He won the quarter mile in 51 1-5 seconds and the half mile in 2:04 3-5.

MICHIGAN WINS MEET.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 15.—Speed on the track gave Michigan an easy victory over Syracuse in the dual athletic meet here today. The final score was Michigan 73 2-3; Syracuse 48 1-3.

MISSOURI DEFEATS KANSAS.

Lawrence, Kans., May 15.—Athletes from the University of Missouri had little difficulty in defeating representatives of the University of Kansas 68 to 41 in the annual dual field and track meet here today.

CHICAGO DEFEATS PURDUE

Chicago, May 15.—Bunched hits in the eighth inning gave the University of Chicago a 3 to 1 victory over Purdue today, despite the fact that Pitcher Loy of the visitors struckout fourteen men. Shall was in excellent form. Captain Gray of the Maroons hammered out what is believed to have been the longest hit ever made on the grounds but the going was slippery and he was called out at the plate trying to make a home run on it.

TO SURRENDER

FRANCHISE TUESDAY.
Bloomington, Ill., May 15.—The present owners of the Bloomington Three Eye League team have announced the intention of surrendering the franchise Tuesday to the league and permitting transfer to some other city, unless other local backers take charge. Committees are now out with favorable indications of retention of the team in Bloomington.

New Haven, May 15.—Yale defeated Harvard in the annual dual track meet here today, 56 to 48.

Harvard, however, protested the meet on the ground that W. E. Roos, who won first place for Yale in the shotput, was ineligible. If the protest is allowed it would give Harvard the meet, 53 to 51.

A HEALTH PROBLEM.

The discussion relative to a new health ordinance for Jacksonville and the creation of a health department has brought various phases of the question to notice. One man recalled yesterday the fact that a member of his family was ill a few months ago with the mumps. In order to avoid quarantine for other members of the family and thus prevent them from following their usual work, it was necessary for them to live elsewhere temporarily. Previously an effort had been made to have the person afflicted with the disease taken to one of the local hospitals, and since none of the hospitals have a quarantine ward for contagious diseases, there was nothing to do but to quarantine the home.

This experience suggested the thought that in Jacksonville where there are so many people who have rooms and board in other people's houses where quarantine would cause a vast amount of inconvenience, what would be their fate if attacked with some comparatively simple disease but one subject to quarantine regulations? It would be very desirable to have them removed from the house in which they were rooming, and yet it would not be possible to place them in any local hospital.

Rheumatism? Here Are Some Real Facts

How to Overcome the Torture Without Harmful Drugs.

A legion of people have used S. S. S. and have overcome the worst forms of rheumatism.

This disease of the blood is little understood because of its strange symptoms, scarcely two people having it exactly alike. And yet, no matter what its form or how painful and distressing, S. S. S. seems to have almost a divine influence in driving it out, releasing the nerves from pain and clearing the joints and muscles so they work without restraint. The best explanation for this happy result is the fact that in S. S. S. are certain ingredients which act as an antidote. They are nature's providence to man.

Just as the meats, fats, salts and sugars of our daily food provide us with nourishment, so does S. S. S. give to the blood the exact medicinal requirement to clear the stream, drive out impurities and reconstruct the body if destructive germs have gained a foothold. Go to any drug store today and get a bottle of S. S. S. It will do you good. But be sure to refuse any and all substitutes. And if yours is a stubborn case, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 109 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. This department is presided over by a physician proud of his name by virtue of his distinguished family and a foremost doctor on his own merits.

U. C. T. CONVENTION GOES TO BLOOMINGTON

JACKSONVILLE COUNCIL PROM-INENT IN STATE MEET.

Traveling Men go on Record Favoring the Tice Good Roads Law—
Local Council Receives Two Banners for Attendance—Officers Elected.

Members of Jacksonville Council No. 182, United Commercial Travelers, who have been at Springfield attending the State convention returned home Saturday. The local members went after the state convention for next year but failed by fifteen votes, Bloomington winning out. Bloomington had not entertained the Travelers since Jacksonville had, was the turning point in favor of the McLean county metropolis.

Harry Myers was the high man among the eight representatives to the Supreme Council in Columbus next July and Jacksonville received two banners, one for the largest attendance and second for the largest percentage of attendance. The records showed that Jacksonville had increased 35 per cent in membership during the past year, the third largest in Illinois.

Jacksonville made a good showing in the parade which was 30 blocks in length. Jeffries Band won favor with the Springfield citizens and was the only delegation there with a band. W. D. Gates was dressed as Uncle Sam and carried a large American flag. The flag was the only stars and stripes in the long procession. Some of the floats in the parade were magnificent, among them a number of industrial floats of Springfield enterprises. The North western councilmen came dressed like Indians as their lodge is known as the "Good Indians." Springfield proved royal entertainers.

Good Roads Resolutions.
The council went on record endorsing the good roads resolution introduced by the Jacksonville Council of which Walter Loneragan was chairman and Harry Myers and L. R. Craig, members of the committee. The resolution follows:

Be it resolved that we, the Grand Council of the State of Illinois of the United Commercial Travelers of America hereby endorse what is known as the Tice Good Roads Law as it is now spread upon the Statute of the State of Illinois.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Governor, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Illinois.

Be it Resolved, That this the Grand Council of Illinois of the United Commercial Travelers of America does hereby establish a department of good roads and empower the Grand Councilor of the State of Illinois to appoint at least one member to co-operate with other good roads organizations of the State.

Be it further resolved that in the event that more than one member be appointed to this committee that the Chairman alone be entitled to per diem.

Governor Dunne Speaks.
Governor Dunne was among the speakers on the program. He favored the Absentee method of voting for traveling men and said that if ever such a bill came to him to be signed he would sign it. He favored one election for each year.

Officers Elected.
The officers elected follows:
Grand Councilor—W. J. Sullivan of Chicago.
Grand Junior Councilor—Alvi Barnum of Peoria.
Grand Conductor—V. E. Bishop of Bloomington.
Grand Page—H. T. Boone of Springfield.
Grand Sentinel—Walter E. Dorsey of Quincy.

CHILDREN TAKE RISKS WITH AUTOMOBILES

See How Close They can Get to Wheels Without Injury—Bicycle
Riders Take Chances—License for Chauffeurs.

Complaints still continue to reach the police department because of the carelessness shown by children in connection with automobiles. While there are many violations of the city traffic ordinance, there are an equal number of children who are constantly permitted by their parents to take great risks while at play. It is a common occurrence for children at play in the street to try to touch the fenders and wheels of passing automobiles.

Another practice which is fraught with great danger is that which boys riding bicycles have developed. They very frequently catch up with an automobile and take hold of the fender. A sudden swerving or slipping of the car would be almost certain to throw them violently to the pavement and possibly beneath the car. Bicycle riders take the same chances frequently in holding on to the rear guard rail of street cars. These practices should be stopped and it is the desire of the authorities to accomplish this very thing. The whole purpose of the agitation for the proper observance of the traffic ordinance and for the observance of the right rules of pedestrians is as a matter of protection and prevention. It is better to have this agitation and to bring to pass a strict enforcement of the law provisions before any accident happens rather than to postpone it and have the stringent enforcement discussion afterward.

And still another matter has developed in the same connection—that is that the state law provides that chauffeurs who are paid for their services must be licensed by the secretary of state. For such a license an examination is necessary. There are undoubtedly young men around Jacksonville who are paid chauffeurs who have not complied with this law. It is a salutary provision of the statute, designed for the protection of occupants of automobiles and for the general public as well.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY

May 16.
Hon. Levi Parsons Morton, merchant, banker, ambassador, governor and vice-president of the United States, long since retired after an extended and notable career, is 91 years old today. The vigor of his old New England ancestry has well preserved him in mind and body. He takes his daily walk and maintains an active interest in public and private matters. He was born at Shoreham, Vt., May 16, 1824, the son of a poor clergyman. He is directly descended from George Morton who financed the trip of the Pilgrims to Massachusetts. At 20 he was a dry goods clerk, and manager to save enough money from his meagre earnings to go into business in Boston. Then he sought larger fields and organized a big company in New York. Failure met him here, but he was able to revive his fortunes and pay back his creditors. He founded famous banking houses in New York and London and made a big fortune. He was elected to Congress in 1879, and two years later was sent to France as ambassador. He remained there for four years. His next office was vice-president of the United States, from 1889 to 1893. Two years afterward he was elected governor of New York.

Hon. Andrieus A. Jones, first assistant Secretary of the Interior, 53 today.

Hon. Robert S. Vessey, former governor of South Dakota, 57 years old today.

Cyrus H. McCormick, head of the International Harvester Co., 56 years old today.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1563 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."

MANY TAXATION MEASURES BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE

Thirty-Two Refer to this Subject and to Revenue—Increase Proposed for Total Taxation to be Levied in Cities and Towns.

Springfield, Ill., May 15.—No less than thirty-two bills relating to revenue and taxation in Illinois have been introduced in the Forty-ninth general assembly. Most of these measures, which cover a range almost as wide as the subjects will embrace, are now pending on the senate and house calendars. A few still remain undisposed of by committees, substitutes have been offered for others and a limited number have been tabled. Most of them, however, will come up for final disposition within the next few weeks.

Increased taxation is contemplated in several of the pending measures, as follows:

Senate bill 172 and house bill 366 provide for the establishment and maintenance by taxation of county libraries outside of Cook county. Taxes for such purposes are not to exceed one mill on the dollar.

Senate bill 125 provides that cities, towns and villages may require of fire insurance companies a tax not exceeding five per cent of the gross receipts of such agency in such city, town or village. The limit now is two per cent.

Senate bill 174 and house bill 175 enable cities, towns and villages to levy a tax for free public libraries and reading rooms not to exceed two mills on the dollar. The limit now is 1.2 mills. In Chicago the limit, which is now six tenths of a mill, is raised to one mill.

House bill 193 authorizes park commissioners to levy a tax not to exceed four mills on the dollar, which is an increase of three mills over the amount provided for by the present law.

House bill 106 provides for the taxation of the personal property of fraternal beneficiary societies.

In house bill 291 provision is made that the aggregate assessment for cities and village in any one year shall not exceed 1.75 per centum or the aggregate valuation of all taxable property in such cities and villages. This is an increase of .50 per centum over the present law.

Exemptions Suggested.

Nine bills have been introduced providing for exemption from taxation of two classes of property. Senate bills 28, 59, 158 for which senate bill 313 1-2 was substituted, and house bills 225, 323, 355 and 687 all provide for the exemption of municipal tuberculosis sanitariums. Senate bill 112 exempts from school tax the property of union soldiers or sailors or their widows or soldiers of the Mexican war, to the amount of $1,000.

Increase in revenue are aimed at in the following bills:

House bills 225, 323, 355, 687 and senate bills 28, 59, 158 for which senate bill 313 1-2 was substituted, are all similar. The rate of reduction on school taxes when scaled by the county clerk is increased from 1.05 on each $100 to $1.20 on each $100.

Senate bill 183 consolidates the present revenue law. It provides for the assessment of capital of banks other than state or national and for the assessment of the capital of public utilities and foreign corporations.

Under the provisions of house bill 783 inheritance taxes would be based on the total amount received, including the amount exempted. House bill 773 provides that interest at six percent shall be paid on all inheritance taxes unpaid at the end of six months, interest to date from the death of the decedent.

Seek to Cut Revenues.

Decrease in revenue were the purposes of two bills introduced in the house. House bill 611, providing for the repeal of the one mill tax levied for the university of Illinois. This measure was tabled this week. House bill 658 provides for the diversion of money from this mill tax for the payment of teachers' pensions.

House bill 831 provides that territory not located within a high school district shall be taxed not to exceed fifteen mills on the dollar to pay the tuition of pupils who must be sent to high schools in other districts.

House bill 813 provides for the formation of special lighting district and the levying of a further tax in addition to the tax for lighting not to exceed two mills on each dollar of taxable property, to be used exclusively for purposes of special lighting within such district.

TO TAKE AUTO TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown and daughter, Miss Anna, will leave tomorrow in their Cadillac car for Philadelphia, Pa. They will spend a number of days there with Wardell Brown, who is a freshman in the University of Pennsylvania and then will begin the return trip home. The distance from Jacksonville to Philadelphia is about 900 miles and they will go first to Indianapolis then to Columbus, around by way of Harrisburg and Pittsburgh and on to their destination. No attempt will be made for a record run and instead the journey will be made by easy stages. Any side trips will be made on the way home.

PROMINENT PYTHIAN DEAD.

Local members of the Knights of Pythias will regret to hear of the death of Union B. Hunt, which occurred May 3. Mr. Hunt had been for a long period identified with the insurance department of the Knights of Pythias and at the time of his death was serving as president and general counsel. He had long been active in the order, and was an intimate friend of the late Charles A. Barnes and well known by M. F. Dunlap and other members of the order.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

Professor Tanner gave a talk in chapel Thursday morning on the "Antigone" the Greek play which is to be presented under the auspices of the Classical club on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Jeanette A. Reed, who was formerly a member of the Whipple Academy faculty, has recently been awarded a Fellowship in Latin at the University of Wisconsin. Miss Reed has been in the Graduate school of the University of Wisconsin during the present year.

President Rammelkamp went to Springfield on Friday to attend the meeting of the Illinois State Historical Society.

Professor Harris went to Quincy on Friday to take charge of an Illinois college exhibit at the Y. M. C. A. in that city. Illinois college is one of the several institutions that were invited by the Quincy Y. M. C. A. to make an exhibit of their work and activities to the high school students of Adams County.

The editors of the Rig Veda are busy at work completing their "Annual."

Two blind boys will receive diplomas at the coming commencement. One is Arthur Petrie who will receive a Bachelor's degree and the other is Fred Meyers, who will receive a diploma in music. Both young men are graduates of the local school for the blind.

About twelve students have entered their names for the annual contest in Oratory which will be held on Saturday evening, June 5th. Two honors are competed for at this contest—one is the Junior cash prize and the other is the opportunity to represent the college in the interscholastic Oratorical competition next fall.

The performance of the Antigone, in which students of Illinois college have the speaking parts, and for which the Woman's college furnishes the chorus, will be given on the campus of the Woman's college next Tuesday, May 14 at 4:00 p. m. Miss Herren, who has arranged the dances has returned from Chicago, and will be with the chorus until the time of the performance. Mr. Caldwell and Miss Scheibel have the leading parts.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

The annual May Day celebration, which took place on Monday, the 10th, was one of the best of its kind that has ever been given at the college. The conception of the pageant was original with the students and showed remarkable talent along this line.

Miss Corinne Hughes will give her graduating recital in expression, on next Wednesday afternoon at 4:15. She will read "Peg O' My Heart." Every one is cordially invited to attend this recital.

The tennis tournament began Saturday, the 15th, and will continue for about a week. The new hard court is being used for this contest.

Unusual honors have been given to Miss Helen McGhee. On Monday she was elected May Queen and was recently elected to the Presidency of the Student's Association. This is the highest office that can be held by any of the students. Under the control of the Student's Association are all the rest of the student activities.

Saturday Dr. and Mrs. Harker and Miss Mothershead entertained for all the certificate graduates. Friday Miss Mothershead entertained for the graduating class in the academy. This year there are 35 who will receive degrees and certificates from the college and academy.

Miss Winnie Wackerle, the matron of the college, is spending the week end with Miss Katherine Wainwright at her home in Winchester. Miss Wainwright is a graduate of the class of 1911 and is in charge of the domestic arts in the East St. Louis public schools.

Mr. Stearns gave two addresses to the students of the college on the programs to be presented by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. On Wednesday President Harker addressed the students of the Jacksonville High school.

The Greek play "The Antigone of Sophocles" will be given Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock on the college campus by a cast composed of students from the Illinois college, Jacksonville High school and Illinois Woman's college. Very satisfactory rehearsals have taken place and every one who attends the play may be assured of a very enjoyable entertainment.

THE "JITNEY" HEARING.

It is possible that a number of Jacksonville people will go to Springfield Wednesday for the hearing on the petition filed by the Jacksonville Railway & Light company protesting against jitney service in this city. A great deal of interest attaches to the question as it is of far more than local interest. So far as known the utility commission has not previously been called upon to pass upon this question, and upon their finding will depend a great deal of the success of motor street transportation in a number of cities. If the right of the jitney to compete with the street car system is denied or stringent provisions are made for their control, the result will be practically the same.

PRESIDENT OFF FOR PARADE.

Washington, May 15.—President Wilson will board the yacht Mayflower today and sail for New York, where he is to review the naval parade on Monday. The President has been urged to take this much needed rest, and his physician believes the sea trip will be particularly beneficial.

Maxwell

Wins Test Over 40 Cars

Result of the great Yale University Sheffield Scientific School Test. Of the forty automobiles tested at the famous Sheffield Scientific School laboratory the Maxwell stands first in economy of Gasoline consumption.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT
SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL
YALE UNIVERSITY

NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

May 1st 1915.

The Biever Motor Car Company,
1079 Chapel Street
New Haven, Conn.

Gentlemen:—

I am enclosing report of test of your Maxwell automobile recently made in our laboratory.

I should like to add the following comments:

1. RELIABILITY OF TEST.

A preliminary test was made on April 19th, using a new car which was rather stiff. The showing was so good that we decided to make a second test. This was made on April 30th, using same car. On this test, the car showed less stiffness and the performance was better than on the first car. The second test was supervised by our most careful experts, and the results, I believe to be perfectly reliable.

2. MILEAGE.

The efficiency of the Maxwell automobile as indicated by the number of miles on a level road, is exceptionally high. This mileage record is better than that of any one of forty automobiles tested in our laboratory to date.

3. MOTOR PERFORMANCE.

The efficiency of the motor and carburetor as indicated by the pounds of gasoline used per hour per horse-power at rear tires, is exceedingly good, and indicates very perfect carburetor action over the whole range of speed and load. This record like that on mileage per gallon, is the best one that we have had.

Very truly yours,

E. H. Lockwood
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MECHANICAL ENGINEERING.

GRAND JURY MAKES SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT TO THE CIRCUIT COURT

A Number of Indictments Returned Against Liquor Sellers—County Home and Jail Found in Good Condition.

The grand jury completed its work yesterday after bringing in a number of indictments, mostly on the charge of violating the provisions of the local option law. The grand jury, through committees, also made a report of visits to the Morgan county home and to the Morgan county jails. The detailed report of the committees appears below.

The jury did not find true bills against the following, whose cases were investigated: James O'Neill, larceny; Paul Stout, Lloyd Hare and Lee Jones, burglary; Charles Cline, larceny; Harry Bland, assault with a deadly weapon; Willie Gray, larceny; Robert Fortado, larceny; J. L. Baxter, burglary; Sylvester Divers, assault with deadly weapon; Frank Nichols, violating local option law.

True bills were reported against the following, and bail in each case was fixed at $500: John Doe alias James Wells, burglary; Oscar Stewart, burglary and larceny; Lloyd Hare, grand larceny; George Williams, robbery; Thomas King, burglary; J. L. Baxter, assault to commit murder; Della Reavis, Kate Haxton, Walter Haxton, Chris Rabley, violating the local option law. There were other indictments for violation of the local option law wherein the defendants have not yet been placed under arrest. The bond of Clyde Payne, alias G. H. Cochran, charged with forgery and confidence game, was fixed at $1,000. Payne is the man who was arrested at Hannibal after cashing bogus express money orders here in the sum of $400.

Judge Burton, who heard the evidence in the case of W. R. Rount vs. T. H. Buckthorpe, rendered a decree Saturday. The case resulted from the return of the Rount automobile for which a reward of $500 was offered. Mr. Buckthorpe took the initial steps in locating the car, but the terms of the offer of reward were such that there was some complication about securing possession, claims being made by members of the police department in Cedar Rapids, where the car was recovered. After hearing the evidence the court awarded the reward to Mr. Buckthorpe, with the agreement that he should pay certain expenses attendant upon the return of the car, which will amount to about $118.

In the partition suit of Lillian B. Haynes et al. vs. Susan Hanson et al., a decree for partition was approved and entered. The grand jury filed its reports on the county home and the county jail Saturday before adjournment. The members of the jury evidently found everything in excellent condition at the home and the jail is mentioned in the same favorable way. The home report is signed by J. C. McMillen, L. O. Butler, Louis H. Engel, J. R. Mawson and R. R. Stevenson; the jail report by G. S. Beekman, Henry Reese, J. B. Heaton, Henry Kunzeman and F. G. Sims.

The reports addressed to the presiding judge are as follows:

County Home.
"We find there are at present 23 inmates, 17 males and 6 females. We find the following live stock: 29 sows, 9 with pigs; 84 pigs, 48 shoats averaging about 100 pounds; 12 cows, one bull, six spring calves, seven horses, two mules, two colts.
"We find plenty of implements of all kinds in first class shape with which to carry on work at the institution. We find the following crops under cultivation: 80 acres of corn, 20 acres of wheat, 16 acres of oats; also 20 acres of meadow, all the crops being in good condition.
"There is also a large quantity of potatoes planted and a very fine truck garden containing a great variety of vegetables. We also find 150 bushels of corn on hand, 150 bushels threshed oats, six tons of hay, two tons straw also a large quantity of smoked meat in first class condition.
"We find the main building to be in good condition but improvements will soon be under way will make it much more so. These improvements include the concreting of the basement, the pointing up of the outside walls and painting of the exterior woodwork. The outside buildings are all in extra good condition.

"We desire to express our thanks to Mrs. Todd for the very excellent meal served to the members of the grand jury. We find that affairs at the farm under the direction of Superintendent W. P. Todd, have been conducted in a very business-like manner; the neatness of the entire place shows the excellent care that has been taken of it and the evident friendliness of the inmates for Mr. and Mrs. Todd speaks well for the attention accorded them.

"We take pleasure, therefore, in commending Mr. Todd upon his administration of affairs at the county farm.

The Jail.
"We find there are at present 24 inmates, 16 males, white; five males, colored; three females, white.
"We deplore the fact that the prisoners have no room for exercise and recommend that the county either establish a rockpile or work the prisoners on the roads of the county, or both. We consider that this would be of benefit to the prisoners as well as to the county.
"We further recommend the painting and papering of the front office and the purchasing of linoleum for the office floor. We commend Sheriff Graff upon the conditions of the jail as we find everything clean and sanitary and conditions generally of the best."

Mrs. M. L. Roberts and Mrs. Abe Seymour of Franklin were among the out of town ladies shopping in the city Saturday.

The work of the students on this occasion brought out fully the high esteem by which Miss Hay is held in Jacksonville.

CONSERVATORY NOTES.

On Saturday afternoon, May 15th, a recital was given by children of ten years of age and under. The College pays particular attention to the instruction for children and it numbers on its faculty several instructors who have made a special study of this most interesting work. The early lessons for the little ones are no longer drudgery, but become an interesting part of the developing life.

Miss Louise D. Miller was soloist at Grace Methodist church at the special Mothers' Day Service last Sunday evening. Misses Mildred Spencer and Miss May Bigger, pupils under Mrs. Hartmann, sang a duet at the same service.

The graduation recitals, held last Wednesday and Thursday evenings at Northminster church, were most successful. Every student performed his number with finish and confidence. The storm of Thursday kept a number away, but those who attended were most enthusiastic.

Mr. Shipp came over from Springfield last Wednesday evening to rehearse his part in Faust with the orchestra. Miss Scheibel and Mrs. Wehl were also present and a most satisfactory rehearsal was carried out.

Rebecca Schibel will take the title part in the Greek play, Antigone, to be given next Tuesday afternoon, May 18th at the Illinois Woman's college.

Miss Jersauld played for the wedding of Miss Idama Dunaway at Virginia last Wednesday evening. Miss Dunaway is a former student at the Conservatory.

Mabel Forrester will play a violin solo at the Christian church Sunday, May 16th.

Members of the Conservatory Orchestra, Grace Hoffman, Helen Sorrells, Byron Carpenter, Harold Dunlap, Earl Briscoe and Paul Morrison played at the amateur performance given at the School for the Deaf Friday evening, May 14th, by the Drama League.

SPORTING NOTES.

The motor fiends are tuning up for the Indianapolis 500-mile race on Memorial day.

What's this we hear about Willard joining the circus? The cowboy life has its attractions, but his managers have shown more keenness for the coin.

Alfred De Oro and George Moore will contest for the three cushion billiard title in New York on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

But Levinsky, who has been laid up with a broken fist, reenters the ring at Akron on Monday for a go with Terry Kellar.

Racing in Germany is billed for revival tomorrow. Sunday meets will be held in Berlin and the other big cities, with American jockey and trainers.

The American Association clubs today cut their teams to sixteen men each. Four more men will be allowed after August 15th.

The orientals are holding their Olympic meet, beginning today. Shanghai gets the meet this year. Japan, Korea, Siam and the Philippines are contesting.

The Colonial League, a minor of the Federals, opens today in southern New England with a six team circuit.

Tuesday will be "Donovan Day" at Detroit, when the old friends of Wild Bill will come from Albion, Mich., to watch his Yankees go against the Tigers.

CUTTING DOWN A HILL.

L. H. Maul, who lives in the Lamberly neighborhood, said Saturday that the big hill on the Jacksonville-Virginia road about two and three-quarters miles northwest of Lamberly is now being worked down and the roadway widened. He said that this was practically the only bad place in the road between Jacksonville and Virginia and that this will be in excellent condition within a very short time, and auto drivers will no doubt be very much interested in the information.

A. W. Petefish, Jr., and wife and Miss Evalene Petefish were all down to the city yesterday from Lamberly.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

EVENING OF TRADES PARTLY OVERCOMES SELLING PRESSURE

Closing Prices for Wheat are Unsettled at 1 Cent Decline to % of a Cent Advance—Corn Gains—Oats Drop.

(Chicago, May 15)—Suggestions from government sources at Washington implying that Hessian fly damage did not as yet warrant the general plowing up of injured fields resulted today in much selling pressure on wheat. The effect however, was partly overcome by week end evening up of trades. Closing prices were unsettled at 1c decline to %c advance compared with last night. Corn gained %c to %c net, oats finished %c off and provisions wound up unchanged to %c higher. Federal advice not to be over hasty in abandoning fly infested wheat acreage was accompanied by a statement that a large part of such territory might be expected to show decided improvement later and to yield eight to ten and in some cases twenty bushels an acre. Bottom prices for the day were made after the receipt of this announcement. The decline had been started by Kansas crop reports that minimized recent alarming assertions of injury which would banish all chances of a bumper yield. Soaking rains were needed in the spring wheat belt northwest counted also against the bulls. Some strength at the opening and again at the close was felt in the wheat market owing to higher quotations at Liverpool and to a sale of 100,000 bushels here for export. Evening up by shorts seemed to be accelerated by the renewal of European call despite signs that vessel owners were increasingly adverse to facing trans-Atlantic risks. Price changes in corn reflected for the most part the fluctuations of the wheat market. Bulls found some encouragement in the fact that Argentine corn was selling in Liverpool at the highest prices on record. Oats felt the pressure of hedging sales against purchases to arrive. There was gossip, though, that the visible supply total on Monday would show a material falling off. Provisions ascended with hogs. Shorts and packers were on the buying side.

Leakless Inner Tubes

Goodyear Laminated Tubes
Built Layer on Layer—Extra Thick

Here is something every motorist should know.

Goodyear Laminated Tubes are built of many thin layers—each of pure rubber—vulcanized together. No flaw can be hidden in a thick piece of rubber. It is even and eliminated. Every layer is perfect.

Such a Tube can't leak. And our valve patch can't leak, because it is part of the Tube and not stuck on.

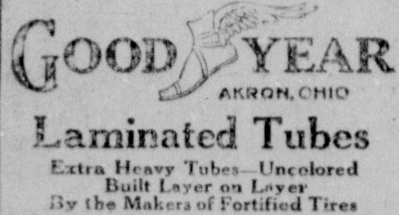

Remember that. Many a tire trouble is due to leaky Tubes.

Tube prices this year are reduced 20 per cent. So these layer Tubes, extra-thick, now cost about the same as others.

Always Gray

Goodyear Laminated Tubes are not colored. They are gray—the natural pure rubber color. Color requires a large percentage of mineral adulteration, and minerals hold heat, a Tube's worst enemy.

Whatever tires you use, get Goodyear Tubes. They will outlast your tires, save you leaks and trouble. They will also convert you to Goodyear.

Fortified Tires, built by the same hi standards.

Any dealer will supply you. (2376)

PRIZE IN GUESSING CONTEST.

March 15th, the Graham Hardware company undertook a unique contest or guessing game. In a large jar they placed kernels from two grains of corn, a lot of nails of various sizes, a quantity of small tacks, some shot and various other small things and then announced a contest for two months. Once a day a person might enter the store record in a book a guess at the number of articles in the jar.

At the end of the two months interested persons were to open the jar, remove the contents, count them and announce the name of the person making the nearest guess. The affair was duly advertised and about a thousand guesses were recorded. The contest was begun at seven p. m. and closed at the same hour and last evening the counting and awarding were placed in the hands of J. W. Priest and John R. Phillips and they went to work.

It was no small task to count the contents of the jar. The prize announced was a Harmony raphophone and twenty records; no light thing to get without money. The fortunate winner was Martha Schaub, daughter of Edward Schaub who works for H. E. Frve & Co. The actual number of articles was 6855 and the nearest guess was 6892. Several others came quite near but none as near as the little girl mentioned and she will doubtless greatly enjoy her prize.

Men's Negligee Shirts of the leading styles are shown by FRANK BYRNS.

CAUGHT FIVE WOLF PUPS.

A short time since the Journal mentioned the killing of a wolf by John Rexroat north of the city in Arcadia precinct. A few days since a lot of people turned out to find the litter of pups which had been secreted by the mother. All were unsuccessful till E. A. Daniels, living on Harvey Johnson's farm in the precinct, and Theodore Lacey joined the search and in a few minutes located the game in a bunch of wild gooseberry bushes. The five pups are now in captivity.

PEORIA CASE AGAINST RAY FERNANDES DISMISSED

Sometime since there was considerable in the papers with reference to the arrest of Raymond Fernandes in Peoria on a charge made against him by his wife. At that time he was taken into court with his wife as complainant and a fine of $100 was assessed together with a jail sentence of 180 days. The young man was released on bail furnished by his father after he had been in jail four days. It seems that subsequently the case was investigated and found to be a minor quarrel between husband and wife and the charges against Fernandes were dismissed. As the time limit of the bond was about to expire Simon Fernandes, father of the Ray Fernandes, asked W. H. McCarty who was going to Peoria to investigate the matter for him. This McCarty did and brought with him a letter from the secretary of the Peoria police department showing that the charges have been dismissed. The letter says: "On Dec. 22, 1914, Raymond Fernandes was arrested on complaint of his wife for disorderly conduct, she prosecuted him at the time and he was fined $100 and costs and went to the house of correction for 180 days. Later his father came here from Jacksonville and secured his release and there is no further charge against him here. You may advise his father that there is nothing against his son in this department."

"Yours very truly,"

"J. E. Halpin." Simon Fernandes desired the publication of the above acts because some previous reports had been exaggerated. He does not uphold his son in any wrong doing, but because Raymond is his son he wishes him to have the benefit of the facts without exaggeration.

FIRST ALFALFA CUTTING IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Acresage is Largest Known in Morgan County—Season Has Been Favorable.

For several days past a number of Morgan county farmers have been busy cutting alfalfa, and if favorable weather continues still others will undertake this work the early days of this week. The acreage sown to alfalfa in the county has increased quite largely this year, and the season has been so favorable that in practically all instances satisfactory crops are reported. D. E. Kennedy finished Friday cutting 40 acres, 30 of which is on his farm and 10 acres on the farm of his brother, both in the Arcadia neighborhood. Mr. Kennedy, who is not given to over-estimating, said Saturday he thought the first cutting would make a ton to the acre. It is very likely that his figure is too low, because his alfalfa field last year produced in the four cuttings 5 1/2 tons per acre.

Mr. Kennedy, who is accounted one of the most progressive and vigorous farmers of the county, did not follow the rules laid down by the Illinois experiment station in planting his alfalfa but has had excellent results nevertheless. He inoculated the soil with dirt from the roots of sweet clover, but did not use lime or phosphate. He does not maintain that the success which he has had with his plan is an argument against the use of lime and phosphate, but believes that it must have happened that the soil on his farm contained the necessary chemical conditions without the addition.

G. A. Leach, who has been something of a pioneer in alfalfa raising in the county, has 25 acres ready for the mower, 15 of which has been seeded in alfalfa for a number of years and 10 acres planted last fall. He has sold his first cutting to the Illinois school for the deaf and expects to deliver it right from the field.

George Fredlander, living just north of the city, has about 40 acres which is in fine shape and which is to be cut early in the week. While the work has not been completed on the A. M. Masters farm, he began Friday to cut the 36-acre field mentioned recently in the Journal. The hay will all be stored loose for the present in the barn which he has erected in the center of the field. These tracts are only a few among the whole number in the county, and all of the fields are said to be ready for cutting.

ALUMNAE REUNION.

The annual Reunion of the Alumnae Association of the Illinois Woman's College will occur on the afternoon of Monday May 31st. A meeting will be held at 3:30 o'clock at which time an interesting program will be given, and the business of the Association transacted.

This meeting will be followed by a six o'clock dinner served in the College dining hall. It is especially desired that former students, now graduates and associate members, attend these meetings as well as all members of the Alumnae Association. Those who expect to be present at the dinner should notify Mrs. W. A. Fay, No. 1243 West State Street, Treasurer of the Association, by May 20th, in order to have a correct number of plates reserved.

GRADUATES CELEBRATE COURT CASE OVER CHAUTAUQUA TAX.
Palo Alto, Cal., May 15.—In celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the first graduation at Leland Stanford, Jr. University, graduates of each of the classes since that first graduate met today in a monster reunion. Today is set aside in the commencement programme as Alumni Day, and a banquet of each of the classes will be held. The graduates will go in a body to the San Francisco Exposition, returning for the commencement exercises on Monday.

Waveross, Ga., May 15.—A hearing will be given in the superior court today on the suit brought against the city to prevent the collection of a $300 license fee from the Waveross Chautauqua Association. Judge Summerall granted an injunction against the city last month to prevent the collection of the tax. The petitioners declare the tax is unreasonable, excessive and prohibitory.

WOMEN COMPLETE AN ACTIVE CLUB YEAR

REPORTS AT MAY BREAKFAST SHOW NOTEWORTHY GAINS.

Meeting at Christian Church Closes Busy Twelvemonth for Members of Jacksonville Woman's Club—Mrs. Medill McCormick Will Speak in City Soon.

Sixty-nine have been added to membership during the year just past by the Jacksonville Woman's club, reports showed Saturday at the annual May breakfast. Work of the club has been extended in many ways. In social service the women have been active. A Clean City club has been formed and children encouraged to work for a more beautiful Jacksonville. The bill for the repeal of the special school charter has been endorsed. The club has joined the Woman's Peace party, an organization formed to discourage war and kill out the war spirit.

The breakfast was held in the parlors of Central Christian church and was served at 11 o'clock by the Pastoral Helpers. Flowers in great abundance graced the tables and each of the one hundred and seven present enjoyed the event to the utmost. At the meeting which followed, Mrs. M. H. Havenhill, outgoing president of the club, held the chair. Mrs. Henry Hunt and Mrs. Lee Skiles of Virginia were guests of honor. In brief words of greeting they spoke for Virginia club women and in behalf of the district federation extended the Jacksonville club special invitation to attend the meeting in their home city next year. Hostesses at the breakfast were Mrs. J. E. Knapp, Mrs. E. B. Spink, Mrs. J. I. Graham, Mrs. C. M. Hopper, Mrs. Abe Wehl, Mrs. Ben. Lorton, Mrs. W. H. Jackson, Mrs. G. W. Flagg and Miss Nettie Hayden. The luncheon committee included Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse, Mrs. Thos. Heaton and Miss Janette Powell. Mrs. Charles B. Graff, as president of the Pastoral Helpers, had charge of the serving. At the beginning of the breakfast, words of invocation were offered by Mrs. Percy W. Stephens.

Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago will come to Jacksonville and Monday, May 24, will speak on "Women in Politics" in the David Prince auditorium. It was announced by Mrs. A. L. Adams in her report for the committee on civics and health.

The New Officers.
The report of the nominating committee was made and adopted as follows:

President—Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson.
First vice president—Mrs. Miller Weir.

Second vice president—Miss Laura White.
Recording secretary—Miss Janette Powell.

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. L. S. Doane.
Treasurer—Miss Anna Brown.

Assistant treasurer—Miss Anna English.

Miss Laura White read the secretary's report and Mrs. O. F. Bate presented the treasurer's report. Mrs. Ben Lorton spoke for the Domestic Science Round Table and Mrs. A. L. Adams gave the civic committee report. She stated that "Your Girl and Mine," the picture by Mrs. McCormick, shown at the Pittsfield convention, will be secured for this city and shown by courtesy of Manager Thomas Scott.

Miss Emma S. Weller reported for the social service department. In the absence of Mrs. Harrison W. King, Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse made the report of the committee on education, and for Miss Marie Chambers, now in Chicago, spoke for the art committee. Mrs. Pierson thanked both papers on behalf of the press committee. Mrs. T. J. Pitner told of the work of the flower, garden and park committee and Mrs. H. J. Camps, for the membership committee, reported an addition of sixty-nine. Mrs. Abe Wehl gave the report of the music committee and Miss Clara Cobb reviewed the work of the house committee. Miss Fanny Wakely, chairman of the courtesy committee and Miss Nettie Hayden, program committee chairman, made reports after which Mrs. Havenhill called upon Miss Mary Price, the club delegate to the federation meeting last week in Pittsfield. Miss Price's talk was full of interest and was in part as follows:

Miss Price began her remarks with reference to the abundant hospitality shown by the ladies of Pittsfield, and expressed also her thanks to the Jacksonville Woman's club for selecting her as a delegate. Pittsfield's Warm Welcome. "As we approached Pittsfield, which is a beautiful 'well groomed' city of some 3,500 inhabitants, we saw not only residences but business houses decorated with club colors. The entire town seemed waving a welcome to us. Even the court house, which is a majestic building standing in the center of the town, was draped on all sides with festive colors."

"The meetings were held in the Pittsfield Christian church, an edifice which served us excellently, for whenever the occasion demanded more space there seemed to be another room which, through sliding doors, could be added to the main auditorium. More than 600 persons witnessed the afternoon and evening programs Tuesday, the first day. Mrs. Ella Orr, of Pittsfield, who gave the address of welcome, has been closely connected with club activity for many years. She gave the delegates a warm welcome and made reference to some of the things being done by club women in Pittsfield. She spoke of the advancement made by women during the century just past, and declared that the suffrage would soon come, not by militant means, but by peaceful, intelligent work.

"Miss Mary M. Shastid, who received her education in Jacksonville, was among those who furnished the music Tuesday afternoon. She played two enjoyable piano selections."

"Particularly interesting was the address of Mrs. Charles Zimmerman, the state president. Mrs. Zimmerman has a fine presence and all the delegates appreciated thoroughly her account of federation progress, both in state and nation. Fifty-nine thousand Illinois women belong to five hundred clubs, she said, and in the United States more than a million women have membership in nine thousand organizations. The delegates were much disappointed to receive news of the enforced absence of Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction, and in a short time the Tuesday afternoon session was adjourned for delicious luncheon served in the building by one of the church societies."

"I am sure that I have never attended a convention of any kind where so much was done for us as in Pittsfield," observed Miss Price in referring again to the excellent hospitality."

Able Work for Suffrage.

After complimentary reference to the song numbers by Mrs. Helen Brown Read to the accompaniment of Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard, Miss Price gave a few impressions of Mrs. Medill McCormick, the evening speaker. "Each spectator had been eager in anticipation of Mrs. McCormick's appearance," Miss Price continued, "and I think everyone was rather surprised when a girlish figure, clad very simply in white, walked quickly to the platform. Mrs. McCormick is a woman of great earnestness and her whole being seemed to radiate energy and fervor. She lost not a moment, but stood erect and plunged at once into her subject. Mrs. McCormick is chairman of the National Congressional committee for the American Suffrage society, and made telling argument for the activity of 'Women in Politics.'"

"As a Jacksonville delegate I took especial interest in the public health symposium. Mrs. A. L. Adams read a comprehensive paper on public health. She spoke of the prevailing opinion of the country as the best place in which to rear children, calling attention to the fact, however, that from lack of care and prevention 3 per cent of rural children are subject to tuberculosis, while only 1 per cent in the city are so affected. Miss Olmsted's account of her work as community nurse and of the open air school was received with evident interest, and Miss Annie Hinrichsen's story of the Red Cross seal campaign held the attention of everyone."

SOCIAL EVENTS

Birthday Party in Murrayville.

The Cunningham home in Murrayville was Thursday evening the scene of a very pretty birthday party when a number of the friends of Harold Cunningham helped in celebrating his sixteenth birthday. The party was to have been enjoyed upon the lawn but the rain storm of that evening spoiled this part of the program and the evening was spent indoors. Games and contest of various kinds were played, which with music made the evening most pleasant. In the contests Dewey Mutch and Blanche Edwards were the winners. At a late hour ice cream and cake were served. Among those present were: Esther Wyatt, Helen Ryman, Harriet Cox, Ellen Wright, Marguerite Spencer, Eleanor Crouse, Marie Bush, Clara Millard, Hazel Wyatt, Lucille Pennell, Alma Mutch, Marie Henry, Media Blakeman, Blanche Edwards, Faye Kotner, Flo Short, Georgia Mavson, Lucy Storey, Grace Cox, Thelma Duniway, Bessie Rea, Grace Cook, Russell Cook, Dewey Mutch, Glen Moore, Oliver Phillips, Claude Dobson, Robert Osborne, Roy Clark, George Kennedy and Guy Moore.

Sorosis Has Annual Outing.

The members of Sorosis were delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Hulet and Mrs. Scott, north of the city. The members took along well filled baskets and the day proved a delightful one in every particular.

Spent Evening at Lake.

A number of young people went to the lake Friday evening where a very happy time was spent, a picnic lunch being part of the program. Those going were Dorothy Smith, Florence Cox, Frances Leck, Mary Briggs, Hilda Aitor, Helen Jackson, Ursula Fawcett and Louise Struck. Misses Jeanette Taylor and Helen Harney acted as chaperons.

Miss Taylor, Hostess.

Miss Nelle Taylor entertained twenty ladies at her home in New Berlin Saturday in honor of Miss Alice Wadsworth. All the appointments were charmingly made and the gathering was one of unusual pleasure.

Miss Florence Spruit Entertains for Guest.

Miss Florence Spruit entertained a company of sixteen friends Saturday afternoon at her home, 214 Westminster street. Auction bridge afforded diversion and after the dainty luncheon, music was enjoyed. Lavender iris formed the basis of very pretty table decorations. Miss Katherine Hardin of Springfield, the guest of honor, was given opportunity thus to meet Jacksonville friends of Miss Spruit.
